About the Book

Cassie's Birthday Wish is a heartwarming children's book that celebrates friendship, family, and the power of wishes. This beautifully illustrated story is perfect for children ages 4-8 and is sure to become a favorite bedtime read.

Cassie is a little girl who loves to make wishes. She wishes for everything from a new doll to a trip to the moon. But her favorite wish of all is for her best friend, Maria, to come to her birthday party.

When Maria's parents tell her that she can't come to Cassie's party, Cassie is heartbroken. She doesn't understand why Maria can't come, and she doesn't want to have her party without her best friend.

But Cassie's mom has a plan. She tells Cassie that she has a special surprise for her on her birthday. Cassie is excited to find out what the surprise is, and she can't wait for her party.

On the day of Cassie's party, her mom takes her to the park. Cassie is surprised to see Maria there, waiting for her. Maria's parents have decided to let her come to the party after all!

Cassie is so happy to see Maria. She gives her a big hug and tells her how much she loves her. Maria tells Cassie that she loves her too, and that she's so glad she could come to her party.

Cassie and Maria have a wonderful time at the party. They play games, eat cake, and dance. Cassie is so glad that Maria is there to celebrate her birthday with her.

At the end of the party, Cassie makes a wish. She wishes that she and Maria will always be best friends. And she knows that her wish will come true.
