By Grace Gold with John Hanlon

Grace Gold is a two-time Olympian and one of the most successful figure skaters in American history. In her new book, Grace, Gold, and Glory, she shares her inspiring story of faith, perseverance, and triumph.

Grace began skating at the age of three, and she quickly fell in love with the sport. She spent countless hours on the ice, honing her skills and dreaming of one day competing in the Olympics. But Grace's journey was not without its challenges. She faced injuries, setbacks, and doubts. But through it all, she never gave up on her dream.

In 2014, Grace made her Olympic debut at the Sochi Games. She finished fourth in the team event and eighth in the individual event. Four years later, she returned to the Olympics in Pyeongchang and won a bronze medal in the team event. It was a dream come true for Grace, and it was a testament to her hard work and dedication.

Grace's story is more than just a story of athletic success. It is a story of faith, perseverance, and triumph. Grace is a devout Christian, and her faith has been a source of strength and guidance throughout her life. She believes that God has given her a gift for skating, and she is determined to use it to glorify Him.

Grace's story is an inspiration to anyone who has ever faced challenges. It is a reminder that anything is possible if you have faith, perseverance, and a dream.
