In this groundbreaking new book, historian Joshua Zeitz takes us inside the mind of Abraham Lincoln, our greatest president, through his most personal writings. Zeitz reveals how Lincoln's private reflections shaped his public persona and leadership and offers a fresh perspective on the man who saved the Union.

Lincoln's writings are a treasure trove of insights into his character, his beliefs, and his motivations. In his letters, speeches, and other writings, Lincoln wrestled with the great issues of his time, including slavery, the Union, and the meaning of democracy. He also shared his thoughts on religion, family, and the human condition.

Zeitz has carefully selected and annotated Lincoln's most revealing writings, providing readers with a unique opportunity to experience the mind of this great leader. Through Lincoln's words, we can learn about his struggles, his triumphs, and his hopes for the future.

Lincoln's Greatest Gift is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the man who saved the Union and the principles that guided him. It is a book that will inspire and challenge readers of all ages.
