On The Night You Were Born is a beautifully written and illustrated book that celebrates the wonder of life and the love between parents and children. It is a perfect bedtime story or special gift for any occasion.

The book begins with the night the child was born. The parents are filled with joy and wonder as they look at their new baby. They tell the child all the things they love about them, from their tiny toes to their big brown eyes.

As the child grows, the parents continue to love and support them. They teach them about the world and help them to learn and grow. The child learns about the importance of kindness, compassion, and forgiveness.

The book ends with the child as an adult. They are now a kind and loving person who is making a difference in the world. The parents are proud of the person their child has become.

On The Night You Were Born is a timeless classic that will be treasured by families for generations to come.
