A Cast of Extraordinary Women

Queens of Egypt features a cast of extraordinary women who defied the odds and ruled Egypt during a time when women were often relegated to secondary roles. These women included:

- Cleopatra VII: The last pharaoh of Egypt, Cleopatra was a brilliant strategist and diplomat who ruled Egypt for nearly three decades. She was known for her beauty, intelligence, and political acumen, and her love affair with Julius Caesar and Mark Antony has been immortalized in literature and film.

- Hatshepsut: One of the most successful female rulers in history, Hatshepsut ruled Egypt for over 20 years and oversaw a period of unprecedented prosperity and peace. She was a skilled diplomat and military leader, and she commissioned many of Egypt's most famous monuments, including the Temple of Karnak.
- Nefertiti: The wife of Pharaoh Akhenaten, Nefertiti was one of the most beautiful women in ancient Egypt. Her iconic bust is one of the most famous pieces of art in the world, and she has been the subject of much speculation and study.
- Tiye: The wife of Pharaoh Amenhotep III, Tiye was a powerful and influential figure in Egyptian court life. She was a skilled diplomat and administrator, and she played a key role in the construction of the Great Temple of Amun at Karnak.
