A group of hikers, seeking adventure and escape, stumble upon a hidden path that leads them deep into the untamed wilderness surrounding Tyler Mills. As they venture deeper, the air grows heavy with a sense of foreboding and unease. Strange sounds echo through the trees, and the hikers begin to feel as though they are being watched.

As darkness falls, the hikers find themselves lost and alone. They stumble upon an abandoned cabin, its windows boarded up and its walls crumbling. Seeking refuge from the cold and the growing sense of dread that consumes them, they decide to spend the night.

But the cabin holds a dark secret, a secret that will soon be revealed to the hikers in terrifying detail. As night descends, the hikers begin to experience strange and unexplainable events. Footsteps creak on the floorboards above them, doors slam shut on their own, and disembodied whispers taunt them from the shadows.

One by one, the hikers begin to disappear, claimed by the darkness that lurks within the cabin. Fear and desperation consume those who remain, as they realize that they are not alone. Something evil, something ancient, has awakened, and it hungers for their souls.
